Buy your Supplies in this Province when the seller had less than 10 per cent profit on the deal! You are doing so in a great many cases in Cowley to-day. I believe I have been instrumental in forcing prices down where you can afford to deal at home, instead of sending your money away for goods. A further shipment of Sheep Lined Coats, Stanfield's Unshrinkable and Mackinon Suits, Fleece Lined Underwear Shirts, Sox, Mitts and Gloves just arrived. A full stock of Staple and Christmas Groceries, Patent Medicines, Stationery and Xmas Cards.

Cowley and its Neighborhood.

W. G. Askey drove out to Pincher Creek on Tuesday.

The work on the railway platform was completed Saturday.

The C.P.R. survey party, who have been surveying for a branch line along the Middle Fork valley, have been in Cowley
the past few days.

The ladies of the Church of England are preparing for an entertainment, which will be given on Thursday, the 26th. A good time is expected.

Owing to the arrangements made by the C. of E. ladies to hold an entertainment next week the Presbyterian social has been postponed till some time in February.

H. D. MacMillan will shortly commence to renovate the Cowley Hotel. The interior will be changed somewhat and a large addition containing eight rooms will be built.

Now that the long nights fare
with us, would it not be advisable
for our older school pupils
of the Lundbreck and Cowley schools to start a series of debating contests.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a very valuable medicine for throat and lung troubles, quickly relieves and cures painful breathing and a dangerous coughing which indicates congested lungs. Sold by dealers everywhere.

The heaviest wind storm for the season prevailed Sunday and Monday. At times the dust drift was so dense and blinding that traffic was almost at a standstill. Reports of the storm come from all parts of Southern Alberta, but its full force seemed centered in Cowley district.

DEATH AT COWLEY.

In the person of Peter McKewen there passed away on Tuesday Morning last one of the oldest residents in the district. Deceased had been feeling the burden of advanced years, but death came rather unexpectedly. He had attained the ripe old age of 82, and up to a few years ago had been enjoying robust health. He was a great many years a prosperous planter in the province of Ontario, and moved to Alberta about three years ago, deciding to spend his waning days with his son at Cowley. He leaves two sons, one living in Ontario and P. McKewen at Cowley. Interment took place Thursday afternoon and was largely attended.

FRANK AND BLAIRMORE HOCKEY

When the Frank hockey team returned from Michel some two weeks ago, having won against Michel 3 to 2, the Blairmore Enterprise suggested that it would pay Frank before again going far from home to try one or two local teams, a suggestion which culminated in an invitation Wednesday night to Blairmore for a friendly match. The team had been practicing heavily in the afternoon, but promptly accepted the invitation, so that at 9 o'clock a game began, which proved decidedly one-sided. The line-up was as follows:

The game was too one-sided to be worth while giving particulars. In the first half there was not a single shot made at the Frank goal, whilst six goals were recorded by the Frank team who kept up a perpetual bombardment of the Blairmore net.

Hustling Town of Lundbreck

Mr. Gordon is making many improvements in his warehouse.

John Wilson has secured a position with T. Madden at the Windsor Hotel.

Rogers & Affleck are cleaning up for their spring stock, which is already arriving.

J. S. Affleck, who has recently been on the sick list, is again about his store.

Dr. Johnston drove out to Pincher Creek Monday and returned same day.

Mr. Hawkins of the South Fork Head Syndicate, was in town on Monday.

The R. & L. Co. have opened up a new seam of coal measuring six feet by the river.

T. Muckridge, of the Windsor, paid a business visit to Frank on Tuesday afternoon.

The walrus-hide boots, the property of Dr. Cook, who came to grief on the "catle guards," near the station, have been sold by public auction and reached a wild figure.

Operations are commenced by the R. & L. Co. on the slope south of the railway and tippie, and it is said a large number of men will be employed there early in the spring.

Work at the Head Syndicate's quarters at South Fork is going ahead well, and some excellent coal is in sight. There is a bright future ahead of these mines, which will be a regular boon to laborers.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is not a common, every-day cough mixture. It is a mercurious remedy for all the troublesome and dangerous complications resulting from cold in the head, throat, chest or lungs. Sold by dealers everywhere.

It is the intention of the members of the C. of E. congregation and others to carry out a social and musical programme for the balance of the winter, which will take place each Wednesday in the new St. Chad's church. The first musical event took place on Wednesday night last and was well attended.

In the second half five more goals were scored by Frank before the Blairmore boys took a shot for Rhynas, who quickly blocked it. Then Lewis with a bit of fine slick work took the puck and saved Blairmore from the clean sheet by scoring Blairmore's first and only goal. The game ended 11-1 in favor of Frank. Bob McGowan, of Frank, acted as referee.
The Frank team are a group of clean players and from the present outlook promise well for the championship of the Pass. Arrangements are being made for matches with Hoesler, Parris, Pincher and Coleman, all of which should be interesting games, and all of which Frank stands well to win.

AN INTERESTING GAME.

Two key gladiators from the Coleman Mercantile and the snowy recruits from the Co-operative Coleman Grocery and Bank met in a freezing combat that chilled their skates to the bone. From the sound of the whistle till the end the players roiled and side-skipped across the ice until the spectators' heads became dazed. One lady fainted. The doctor was immediately called and he quickly brought the lady around and later pronounced the disease "melancholia." This malady was hastened by too closely following Mack when he attempted to get a half Nelson on Willie Miller.

W. Pearson and Darcy Graves played an errorless game except when Darcy slipped which happened at intervals of one minute and sixty seconds. The game would have been played in fifty minutes if the ice had been much harder. D. J. Rogerson showed much class and showed everybody except the audience that he should be by the Wanderers' team. D. F. Hughes played carefully and kept the puck away as far as possible. A. I. Blais charged the enemy with the skill of a lawyer. The rest of the players were steady and kept cool heads considering the softness of the ice. The game receipts amounted to $1.78.

THE BOXING MATCH

The opera house was more than three-fourths filled on Monday the 17th to see Kid Clark and Kid Pigeon fight twenty rounds of a fast boxing contest. The exhibition was one of the cleverest given in Coleman as the men were not only both well selected but evenly matched. Jim Burrows was chosen as referee by the crowd before the fight.

In the preliminary the Spokane Kid knocked out Hogan in the fifth round. Hogan seemed to be having a hard day off as he sparred carelessly.

As the west bound train was late the main bout was not pulled off till 11.30. Both men weighed in and shook hands. The first few rounds were fairly even with the honors in favor of Pigeon who landed heavier and oftener on the jaw than Clark who contended himself with punneling Pigeon's ribs. In the fifth Pigeon gave Clark a right in the eye which started it bleeding. A rest was here taken as Pigeon's glove was torn.

Clark limped up in the next few rounds and held his own but to the average man in the audience he was being outpointed. Towards the last Clark worked in a nice upper cut and continued to punish Pigeon in the kidneys. Pigeon replied by heavy ones in the face. As soon as the bout was over the referee gave the match to Clark, much to the disgust of the large crowd who seemed to think that Pigeon deserved the honor, or at least, a draw.

JOHN BULKO REPLIES

To the Editor Cowley Chronicle

Dear Sir,—The District Ledger and Coleman Miner of recent date contain some correspondence from someone of the socialist clique in the Coleman local union who signs himself "Well-wisher" and "Miner," and judging from the fear he has of having his signature attached to his lying epistle I would take it for granted that he would be the first man in the country to turn traitor and sell his fellows to the enemy. In my mind I feel quite confident of the car who made such a public attempt to attack me. "He no doubt is one of the prying twos of enmity and from such one cannot expect any but falsehood. My action in regard to the union I consider quite correct, and I am perfectly sure I am right, and regardless of what may happen to me and my fellow countrymen we know that we are right, and that is more than any of the socialist clique around Coleman can say of their actions. Well-wisher, indeed! Instead of being a well-wisher he tries by the dirty and lying methods of his and his countrymen to attack me. But I have been in this country too long for any of the Barnardo shipment to make any of their accusations against me and be able to prove them. The socialist party were assisted from the funds of the local union, and I can show you, Mr. Editor, the District Ledger of that date which contains the report of the money collected. But Well-wisher lies and tries to draw a mantle over their shameful actions. The late strike was called for to assist the socialist party trying to secure the closed shop to force every workman in and about the mines to give of their hand earned money to support a political party, in whom they do not believe. We do not wish our money squandered by socialist tramps who will not work and who never did work and we are asked to lay down and submit to such people. I do not ask for any sympathy from any source, for I am sure I am right and feeling as, all is well. My deeds and actions you may condemn, but you cannot change our opinions on the conduct of the clique who to gain their own political ends threw us all idle for three months and came near getting us a reduction in all the collieries in the Pass. Hillcrest men suffered 10 cents of a reduction per ton and this was caused by forcing socialism on our unions. I hope, Mr. Editor, you will give this space in your paper and if "Well-wisher" wants to hear from me again I will point out a few facts.

JOHN BULKO.

FRANK AND BLAIRMORE HOCKEY

When the Frank hockey team returned from Michel some two weeks ago, having won against Michel 3 to 2 the Blairmore Enterprise suggested that it would pay Frank before again going far from home to try one or two local teams, a suggestion which culminated in an invitation Wednesday night to Blairmore for a friendly match. The team had been practising heavily in the afternoon, but promptly accepted the invitation, so that at 9 o'clock a game began which proved decidedly one-sided. The line-up was as follows:

The game was too one-sided to be worth while giving particulars. In the first half there was not a single shot made at the Frank goal, whilst six goals were recorded by the Frank team who kept up a perpetual bombardment of the Blairmore net.

In the second half five more goals were scored by Frank before the Blairmore boys took a shot for Rhyns, who quickly blocked it. The Frank team are a group of clean players and from the present outlook promise well for the championship of the Pass. Arrangements are being made for matches with Homer, Fernie, Pincher and Coleman, all of which should be interesting games, and all of which Frank stands well to win.
